One of the best ways to network and maximize your Chamber investment is to get involved. Your help and expertise can make a difference in building business and community. Take a moment to review the following Committees, check the box next to a committee you are interest in working in.

- Ambassador Committee
Works to increase the awareness of the Chamber. Ambassadors visit new members and local companies to learn more about fellow members and to provide information on Chamber programs and services.
- Government Affairs Committee
Reviews legislation at the local, state and national levels. Recommends policy to the Chamber of Commerce Board on legislative and community issues. Conducts the Annual Legislative Breakfast and forums on pertinent issues.
- Benefits & Benefit Marketing Committee
Evaluates existing and explores new benefits for Chamber member businesses and develops and implements plans to market benefits to Chamber member businesses and prospects.
- Awards Judging Committee

Organizes nominations, judging and presentations of the Chamber awards.

Special Event Committee

Plans and assists with marketing and PR, sponsorships, etc. for The Chamber's SHINE Awards Dinner, Holiday Luncheon and Business Conference/Trade Show.

Women With Impact Network
